

Catalogue

Stay secure and compliant with pre-packaged and pre-tested application packages

Apptimized Catalogue helps to keep your estate current by providing the latest versions of the world's most widely used applications, packaged and ready to deploy.

The timely installation of safe application packages is an essential component of the company's stable operation and functionality, regardless of the scope of its activities. At the same time, it's not an easy task to find applications, pre-packaged to high-quality standards are compliant to your software estate. As well as packaging new application versions with every new vendor's release, download them within the company and do the repetitive actions on an ongoing basis takes time and effort for your technical team.

Apptimized Catalogue helps to keep your software estate current by providing more than 500 of the most commonly used ready-to-deploy applications in 32-bit and 64-bit versions and various formats including PSADT wrapping.

BENEFITS TO YOUR ORGANIZATION

Fast, simple packages

Apptimized has carefully created the most popular application packages to the most common requirements adopting industry best practice.

Always up-to-date

The latest versions are available to order within 24 hours of the release of the update by the vendor - ready for download within 48 after request.

Secured packages

Minimizes the risks of having outdated applications on your company's computers, which can lead to the failure of the entire system.

Key Product Features

Top modern application packages

With Apptimized Catalogue you'll be able to request ready-to-deploy packages for automated software deployment across all company devices, safe in the knowledge they are checked and tested for malicious scripts, giving you peace of mind of our installable products.

Zero risk

Each version of the application package undergoes a full cycle of testing by our specialists. Minimizing the risk of installing a malicious application on your company's computers, which can lead to the failure of the entire system.

Package updates

Catalogue contains application packages in the most frequently used formats like MSI, App-V, IntuneWin and MSIX, optionally PSADT wrapped. Our solution includes applications such as Adobe Reader, 7-Zip, Java, Mozilla Firefox, Filezilla, Google Chrome, Visual C++, as well as a host of others.

Installation guidelines

Every package delivered, comes with application packaging guidelines and additional documentation to describe the detailed installation process.

Full compliance

Avoid non-compliance with IT security policies and audit requirements. Apptimized will keep you in front of the curve, with high-quality packaged updates to maintain smooth IT operations reducing additional cost and effort.